Former Area Teacher Dies In Hospital

JEROME—Irshal O. Davis, 64, died Friday morning at the Veterans Hospital in Boise.

He was born March 26, 1902, in Iola, Kan., and graduated from Baker University, Baldwin, Kan., in 1924 and did post graduate work at the University of Montana, Missoula. He came to Jerome in 1946 where he taught band and chorus. Mr. Davis also taught at Aberdeen, Mullan and Filer.

In World War II he was warrant officer with the U. S. Army. He was a member of the Nazarene Church. He was also an antique auto enthusiast and a charter member of the Gooding Regional Horseless Carriage Club. In 1964 he retired from teaching.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Jennie K. Davis, Union Town, Kan., and two brothers, Ivor Davis, Jerome, and John Davis, Winter Garden, Fla.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday at the Nazarene Church, Jerome, by Rev. Paul W. Wolstenholm. Final rites will be held in Fort Scott, Kan.
